Grant opportunities and funding resources

WVDEP's Nonpoint Source (NPS) Program recognizes the importance of securing additional funding to successfully plan, maintain, and evaluate the proposed and completed projects in West Virginia's watersheds. There are many local, state, federal, and private funders that have supported environmental projects and/or non-profits organizations efforts in the past. Here is a list of grant sources (including pertinent details, contact information, etc.) that could result in additional project funding for successful applicants. Note: If you know of other resources to share, please contact the NPS Coordinator.

Phone: Send correspondence to the address above, this is a family run organization and does not have a designated phone number.

Geographic focus: East of the Mississippi River

Grant range: Typically, $10,000

Description: Abelard is a family foundation with a thirty-year history of progressive funding. The Foundation is committed to supporting social change organizations which:

- Reflect through membership or participation, the communities in which they are based;
- Expand the community control over economic social and environmental decisions affecting the community's well-being and
- Build a strong informed voice on public policy issues.
- Seek to fund their organizations and efforts in the early stages of development

Limitations: International organizations and organizations located outside of the US; direct social services; government agencies and programs undertaken by tax-supported institutions or government initiative; programs which are solely educational, training or technical assistance in nature; capital expenditure, endowments, construction or renovation programs; emergency funding; scholarship funds or other aid to individuals; schools and educational institutions; cultural institutions; medical institutions; film, video, publications or other media projects; grantmaking institutions; large national or regional networks; research or fellowships; organizations with access to traditional or mainstream funding. Deadline: Applications will be accepted at any time. Phone: 865-523-5783

Geographic focus: Central Appalachia (East Tennessee, Eastern Kentucky, Southwest Virginia and West Virginia)

Grant Range: varies, up to $10,000

Description: ACF provides grants to community-based organizations working for social, economic, racial and environmental justice. We support community organizing for social change that is community-led and community-based, addressing root causes and systemic issues, and understanding forms of oppression, especially racism. We encourage organizations that have developed a realistic plan for achieving change. We place a priority on work that utilizes organizing and education to promote social change and we invite projects that are startup in nature. We encourage groups to work together, share information, educate their target audiences and broaden the movement for progressive social change. ACF grants are made for a

Claude Worthington Benedum Foundation

1400 Benedum-Trees Foundation

223 Fourth Ave.

Pittsburgh, PA 15222

Email: info@benedum.org

Website: <http://www.benedum.org/>

Phone: 412-288-0360 or 1-800-223-5948 (WV only)

Geographic focus: West Virginia and Southwestern Pennsylvania

Grant Range: Varies widely from a few thousand to a few hundred thousand

Description: The Claude Worthington Benedum Foundation is an independent foundation established in 1944 by Michael and Sarah Benedum, natives respectively of Bridgeport and Blacksville, West Virginia. They named the Foundation in memory of their only child, Claude Worthington Benedum, who died in 1918 at age 20. In creating the Foundation, Mr. and Mrs. Benedum expressed the wish that grantmaking be focused in West Virginia and Pittsburgh, their native and adopted homes. The Foundation makes grants in two program areas that span both states: Education and Economic Development. In addition, the Foundation supports Community Development and Health & Human Services grants programs in West Virginia, and in Southwestern Pennsylvania supports the major performing arts organizations within the Cultural District.

Limitations: The Benedum Foundation does not support: organizations located outside West Virginia and Southwestern Pennsylvania, individuals, organizations not exempt from taxation under Internal Revenue Code Section 501(c)(3), student aid, fellowships, or travel, construction or equipment, endowment, on-going operating expenses, national organizations, biomedical research, religious organizations for religious purposes, individual elementary and secondary schools, annual appeals or membership drives, conferences, films, books, and audio-visual productions, unless an integral part of a Foundation-supported program. Deadline: Submit your application using the Foundation's online grant application. The Foundation does not have submission deadlines and applications are accepted throughout the year.

The Captain Planet Foundation

Email: Questions can be submitted at <http://captainplanetfoundation.org/connect/>

Phone: 404-522-4270

Geographic focus: Nationwide

Grant Range: Varies, typically $500-$2500

Description: For 25 years, the Captain Planet Foundation has supported educators who facilitate youth-led projects that result in positive impacts to the environment and communities. From what began as one broad Small Grants program that funded a wide range of project types - our grant making has since evolved into more specific categories. Captain Planet Foundation grants are intended to:

- Empower youth by providing hands-on environmental stewardship opportunities
- Inspire youth and communities to become agents of change for their environment

Grant opportunities and funding resources

- Serve as a catalyst for education that uses the environment as a context for applied and STEM learning

Limitations: Projects must be based in the USA, be project based, be youth led, and result in real, demonstrable environmental outcomes. Other limitations apply. Deadlines: Different for each grant program, this information is also on the guidance document.

The Chesapeake Bay Stewardship Fund, Small Watershed Grants

National Fish and Wildlife Foundation

Website: <http://www.nfwf.org/chesapeake/>

Phone: 202-857-0166

Geographic focus: The Chesapeake Bay Basin

Grant Range: $20,000 - $200,000

Description: The Chesapeake Bay Small Watershed Grants (SWG) Program will award grants for projects that promote community-based efforts to develop conservation strategies that protect and restore the diverse natural resources of the Chesapeake Bay and its watershed. These grants require minimum non-Federal matching contribution valued at 25% of the total project cost, equal to one-third of the grant request. All 2016 SWG grants must be completed within two years of grant award. The Chesapeake Bay Small Watershed Grants Program seeks to address four main program priorities:(1) Targeted River and Watershed Restoration (2) Green Infrastructure in Developed Landscapes (3) Regional-Scale Restoration Program Delivery (4) Innovation on Crosscutting Issues. Applicants must use the online application located at <https://easygrants.nfwf.org> to apply for the SWG Program.

Limitations: Eligible applicants include non-profit 501(c) organizations, local governments, municipal governments, and Indian tribes, and K-12 educational institutions. Ineligible applicants include U.S. Federal government agencies, state government agencies, businesses, unincorporated individuals, and international organizations. Deadline: Usually a spring date, for implementation beginning in fall projects deemed appropriate by the membership. The Foundation values projects that already have a good deal of community support and developed partnerships. They are seldom the primary funding source of a project and like to put projects “over the top.”

Limitations: Call or write for guidelines. Deadline: Call or write for details.

Earth Systems Research Institute (ESRI)

Charles Convis, ESRI Conservation Program Coordinator

380 New York St.

Redlands, CA 92373

Email: ecp2@esri.com

Website: <http://www.esri.com/esri-conservation-program>

Phone: 909-793-2853

Geographic focus: Nationwide

Description: The Earth Systems Research Institute is the leading manufacturer of Geographic Information Systems (GIS) software. This software can be used to map and analyze spatial data and is often useful in conservation and environmental work. Recognizing the potential usefulness of these programs, in the non-profit sector ESRI has developed a branch which provides software at a cost based on financial ability (a minimum cost is required to cover shipping expenses) to non-profit organizations. Before submitting a grant application ESRI asks that an organization fully consider the type of projects they want to pursue using GIS. Grants cover GIS software and a free publication, and a free training course. Grants are determined based on the work to be done and the demonstrated financial need of the organization.

Limitations: Grants are made on a case-by-case basis to non-profit organizations, programs and individuals active in public service and nature conservation, including but not limited to 501c3 organizations, University programs, Botanic Gardens and Museums, Native and First Nations groups, Local Parks, Watershed commissions, Social Justice and local volunteers. Any non-profit or non-government organization working for social justice, environment, indigenous rights or public benefit in any nation, or any individual volunteering for these types of groups, may apply for a grant. You should be familiar with GIS and its capabilities before applying. If not, you can visit www.gis.com for information. This grant is for software only, hardware must be obtained from other sources. Deadline: Applications may be submitted at any time.

specific initiatives and grant requests must align with an initiative. Important characteristics considered by EFA are an organization's record of achievement, intended broad impact, sound financial practices, increasing independence, and correspondence with EFA objectives. Unfortunately, many worthy requests are denied because needs exceed the Foundation's resources or a given project does not fall within a current area of focus. Be sure to read requirements for letters of Inquiry.

Limitations: EFA provides grants for specific projects. It does not provide funds for endowment or endowed faculty chairs, building/capital programs, religious purposes, grants to individuals, annual fund-raising campaigns, indirect costs, overhead or general support. Deadline: NA

Phone: NA

Geographic focus: Nationwide

Grant Amount: Up to $250,000 (send grant proposals over $25,000 go to U.S.E.P.A. Headquarters)

Description: Under the Environmental Education Grants Program, EPA seeks grant proposals from eligible applicants to support environmental education projects that promote environmental awareness and stewardship and help provide people with the skills to take responsible actions to protect the environment. This grant program provides financial support for projects that design, demonstrate, and/or disseminate environmental education practices, methods, or techniques. Since 1992, EPA has distributed between $2 and $3.5 million in grant funding per year, supporting more than 3,600 grants.

Limitations: Any local education agency, college or university, state education or environmental agency, nonprofit organization as described in Section 501(C)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or a noncommercial educational broadcasting entity as defined and licensed by Federal Communications Commission may submit a proposal. Applicant organizations must be in the United States or territories, and most the educational activities must take place in the United States; or in the United States and Canada or Mexico; or in U.S. Territories. A teacher's school district, an educator's nonprofit organization, or a faculty member's college or university may apply, but an individual teacher or faculty member may not apply. Eligibility requirements apply to both "prime" recipients and sub-grantees. "Tribal education agencies" that are eligible to apply include a school or community college which is controlled by an Indian tribe, band, or nation, which is recognized as eligible for special programs and services provided by the United States to Indians because of their status as Indians and which is not administered by the Bureau of Indian Education. Tribal organizations do not qualify unless they meet those criteria or the non-profit criteria listed above and below. For-profit organizations are not eligible to apply for this funding opportunity. Additionally, nonprofit organizations described in Section 501(c)(4) of the Internal Revenue Code that engage in lobbying activities as defined in Section 3 of the

Geographic focus: Nationwide

Grant Amount: Approximately 40 one-year projects will be awarded at $30,000 each.

Description: Since its inception in 1994, the Environmental Justice Small Grants Program has awarded more than $24 million in funding to over 1400 community-based organizations, and local and tribal organizations working with communities facing environmental justice issues. The Environmental Justice Small Grants Program supports and empowers communities working on solutions to local environmental and public health issues. The program is designed to help communities understand and address exposure to multiple environmental harms and risks.

Limitations: An eligible applicant must be one of the following entities: incorporated non-profit organizations—including, but not limited to, environmental justice networks, faith based organizations and those affiliated with religious institutions; federally recognized tribal governments; OR tribal organizations. Applicants must be located within the same state, territory, commonwealth, or tribe in which the proposed project is located. In addition, eligible applicants must demonstrate that they have worked directly with the affected community.

Deadline: Applications are due on January 31, 2017 by 11:59 PM (EST). EPA requires applications for Environmental Justice grants to be submitted electronically through the Grants.gov website.

Phone: 703-519-9691

Geographic focus: United States and Canada

Grant Amount: Conservation Grants average $7,500

Description: Since 1983, the FishAmerica Foundation has awarded $12.1 million to 1,007 projects in all fifty states and Canada to enhance fish populations, restore fishery habitats, improve water quality and advance fishery research to improve sport fishing opportunities and help ensure recreational fishing's future. The FishAmerica Foundation has had tremendous success in leveraging a myriad of funding sources to support nationwide fisheries conservation and habitat restoration projects, especially grant dollars. With each dollar being leveraged nearly nine times, the foundation demonstrates its important role in working with community-based conservation organizations, along with state and federal biologists, to help improve recreational fishing and boating opportunities. Additionally, the FishAmerica Foundation involves and educates community volunteers on the conservation and recreational benefits for each project awarded funding. Over the years, the foundation, along with its federal, regional, state and community partners, have made great strides in both small and large, urban and rural communities to improve habitat for fisheries conservation, creating more recreational fishing opportunities along the way.

Limitations: For information on the grants or partnering with Fish America, contact them at the email and phone number above. Deadline: Proposals are accepted anytime and reviewed year-round.

Five Star Restoration Program Challenge Grants

Attn: Danny Bowater

Five Star Restoration Program

National Fish and Wildlife Foundation

1133 Fifteenth St. NW, Suite 1100

Washington, DC 20005

Email: Daniel.Bowater@nfwf.org

Website: <http://www.nfwf.org/fivestar/Pages/home.aspx>

Phone: 202-595-2434

Geographic focus: Nationwide

Grant Amount: Approximately $2,500,000 is available nationwide for projects meeting program priorities. There is one round of full proposals annually for this program. Awards range from $20,000 to $50,000 with an average size of $30,000 and 40-50 grants awarded per year. Grants should span one to two years in length with a start date in July 2017. Applications requesting more than $30,000 should propose projects longer than one year.

Description: The Five Star and Urban Waters Restoration grant program seeks to develop community capacity to sustain local natural resources for future generations by providing modest financial assistance to diverse local partnerships focused on improving water quality, watersheds and the species and habitats they support. Projects include a variety of ecological improvements including: wetland, riparian, forest and coastal habitat restoration; wildlife conservation; community tree canopy enhancement; and/or water quality monitoring and stormwater management; along with targeted community outreach, education and stewardship. NFWF may use a mix of public and private funding sources to support any grant made through this program. Priority will be given to projects in urban, suburban and/or rural areas that advance water quality goals in environmental justice communities such as neighborhoods with high concentrations of minority and low-income populations. Projects that increase access to the benefits of nature, reduce the impact of environmental hazards and engage these communities in the project planning, outreach and implementation will have priority for funding.

Limitations: Eligible applicants include non-profit 501(c) organizations, state government agencies, local governments, municipal governments, Indian tribes and educational institutions. Ineligible applicants include: unincorporated individuals, businesses, international organizations and U.S. Federal government agencies. NFWF funds and matching contributions may not be used to support political advocacy, fundraising, lobbying, litigation, terrorist activities or Foreign Corrupt Practices Act violations. NFWF funds may not be used to support ongoing efforts to comply with legal requirements including permit conditions, mitigation and settlement

Geographic Focus: Nationwide

Grant Amount: Typically, $1000, but up to $5000 for strategic opportunities

Description: Common Counsel's Grassroots Exchange Fund (GXF) is a discretionary small grants program designed to support networking and collaboration between grassroots social change organizations throughout the United States. GXF prioritizes grants to small community-based groups seeking to meet face-to-face with other grassroots organizations, to build collaborative campaigns, and to benefit from organizing training and technical assistance opportunities. The program strives to meet three central goals: to strengthen the ability of community organizations to participate in public debates; to strengthen key cross-region and cross-sector movements; and to contribute to collaborative policy victories in the realms of social, economic, and environmental justice.

Limitations: GXF generally does not fund the following:

- Organizations located outside of the United States;
- Direct social services;
- Government agencies and programs;
- Capital expenditure, endowments, construction or renovation programs;
- Scholarship funds or other aid to individuals;
- Schools and educational institutions, cultural institutions, or medical institutions;
- Film, video, publications or other media projects;
- Grantmaking institutions;
- Research or fellowships.

National Forest Foundation - Matching Awards Program

National Forest Foundation

Bldg. 27, Ste 3, Fort Missoula Rd.

Missoula, MT 59804

Email: aliljblad@nationalforests.org

Website: <https://www.nationalforests.org/grant-programs/map>

Phone: 406-830-3357

Geographic focus: Nationwide

Grant Amount: Average award - $28,000

Description: The National Forest Foundation (NFF) Matching Awards Program (MAP) provides funding for results-oriented on-the-ground projects that enhance forest health and outdoor experiences on National Forests and Grasslands. MAP requires projects show a strong commitment to civic engagement and community involvement through direct public involvement. To be eligible for MAP funding, projects must contain significant, legitimate community involvement or civic engagement in the pre-implementation, implementation, or post-implementation phase. Typically, this involves the use of volunteers in project implementation, or the implementation of projects selected as an outcome of a formal collaborative-planning process. Note that the community engagement portion of the project does not necessarily have to occur in the portion of the project receiving MAP funding, although the project narrative must clearly describe the community engagement component. The standard public involvement component of the NEPA process is insufficient to meet this requirement.

Limitations: The NFF will not consider MAP applications from the following:

- Federal agencies;
- Regional, state or local governmental entities;
- For-profit organizations;
- Consultants;
- Educational and research organizations proposing projects that do not show tangible, on-the-ground benefit;
- Organizations seeking general operating or programmatic support;
- Organizations seeking funding for litigation or advocacy;
- Organizations that cannot produce 1:1 cash match of non-federal, project-directed funds.
- Organizations considering submitting a proposal for a work over a timeline longer than one-year.
- The following project types are not eligible for funding:
  - Funding for outreach and/or education as a primary project component;
  - General operating or programmatic support;
  - Funding for any form of advocacy or litigation;
  - Funding provided to the U.S. Forest Service or any other federal entity.

Deadline: January 27th or June 26th

Needmor Fund

Perrysburg, OH 43551

Email: cslabaugh@needmorfund.org

Website: <http://www.needmorfund.org/>

Phone: 419-872-1490

Geographic focus: Nationwide

Grant Amount: Typically, $25,000 to $40,000

Description: The Needmor Fund seeks to:

- remove systemic barriers to the practice of democracy by encouraging the efforts of people who are working together for justice and the common good;
- encourage involvement in community affairs by people whose participation has been systematically denied; and
- foster the active participation of all citizens in crafting a vision, values and policies that are more equitable, to guide the operation of our country.

The Needmor Fund has identified community organizing as the most effective means for achieving these goals. Community organizing is “a process through which historically disenfranchised people can build power, can address the systemic barriers to the practice of democracy, can hold public and corporate officials accountable for their actions, and can begin to participate in shaping public policy.”

Grant opportunities and funding resources

Grant Amount: $1000 - $10,000

Description: Community Action Grants are made in the fields of: Arts and Culture, Education, Health and Human Services, Recreation, Youth and Family Services, and Community and Economic Development. The Foundation focuses on: Capital and Equipment Projects, Program Development, Capacity Building, and Operating Support. Eligibility criteria differ based on the type of support requested, so please review the following descriptions carefully.

Priority is given to projects that:

- have significant impact on the people and communities served by the applicant organization;
- reach new audiences, expand existing programs or services, or respond to emerging needs;
- strengthen the organization's capacity to deliver its services and meet community needs;
- are well-planned and can reasonably be achieved;
- have a matching grant opportunity or seek a matching grant to leverage more funding;
- have limited access to other sources of support.

Limitations: To be eligible for a Foundation Community Action Grant, an applicant must be a private, nonprofit organization tax-exempt under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code or a public institution, such as a public school or government agency. Requests from individuals are not accepted. The programs the PACF considers for support must be in the Foundation's 11-county service area or must directly benefit the residents in its service area. Deadline: The Board of Governor's meets twice a year. Geographic focus: Nationwide

Grant Amount: $2,500 to $15,000

Description: Patagonia funds only environmental work. We are most interested in making grants to organizations that identify and work on the root causes of problems and that approach issues with a commitment to long-term change. We look for programs with a clear agenda for change and a strategic plan for achieving the organization's goals. Because we believe that true change will occur only through a strong grassroots movement, our funding focuses on organizations that build a strong base of citizen support. Patagonia funds work that: is action-oriented, builds public involvement and support, is strategic, focuses on root causes, accomplishes specific goals and objectives, is happening in these countries only: United States, Canada, Japan, Chile,

Phone: +44 (0) 1334 462161

Geographic focus: Worldwide

Grant Amount: $30,000 to the winner, $5,000 to runners-up

Description: The primary objective of the St Andrews Prize is to find innovative solutions to environmental problems. The solutions should be practical, combining good science, economic reality and political acceptability. They should also have the potential for wider application elsewhere. In most circumstances, they should not already have received widespread recognition, but applications will be judged on their merits. An important aim of the Prize is to provide seed-funding to help promote implementation of such ideas and solutions. Applicants are free to choose whatever problem they wish. Submissions should be as specific as possible in defining the issue and that proposed solutions be shown to be practical in their application. In thinking about their own topic, it may be helpful to applicants to look at the list of previous winners (available on the website) whose topics have covered such areas as urban regeneration, by-products from waste, health and water issues, agriculture and renewable energy.

Limitations: None indicated. Deadline: A preliminary single page summary is due October 1. A final Submission will be due January 16.
