

Miss Makey's May Challenge

You never know what can be made!

The WV DEP's Youth Environmental Program, along with West Virginia Author Mandi S. Figlioli, is challenging you to turn trash into treasure!

Read the book and create your own invention out of recyclables! Then submit a picture to dep.yep@wv.gov or post to Twitter or Facebook using the hashtag, #MissMakey.

All entries must be received by May 31st. One entry per person

Please include the name of your invention, how it works, along with the inventor's name, age and mailing address with each entry.

Winners will be selected from two ages groups: 11 and under and 12 to 18

Selected winners will receive a copy of the book Miss Makey and The Magic Bin and an invite to meet the author of the book, herself, via a live zoom session.

Don't have the book? Listen to it here
